Friday Night Market Free Karaoke & Performances

Community Centre hosts another fabulous and free evening of local Performances and karaoke as part of its Night Market

Downtown Toronto – Toronto’s only Friday Night Market is an exciting new hotspot for an amazing family friendly evening with delicious street food and drinks and great performances. This week’s lineup includes a chance to belt out your own tunes during its Karaoke Night or enjoy the expanded Children’s Activity Area!

- What: Karaoke & performances, part of the Live Local Friday Night Market
- When: July 29, 2010, 5 – 10pm
- Who: Karaoke by Voices of TO and Performances by Alison McGregor, Epaiseurse, Cailean Lewis & Vidyadhar Nowduri
- Where: Scadding Court Community Centre, 707 Dundas St. W (southeast corner Dundas & Bathurst Streets)

The Friday Night Market is about taking advantage of and supporting all that downtown has to offer including local talent, up and coming business and trendy urban spaces. The market hosts the daily Marketplace vendors, along with additional local retailers, performers and a Children’s Activity Area. It is happening every Friday this summer!

“This is a fantastic opportunity for the neighbourhood to really celebrate the community and support living locally... a great way to spend a family-friendly Friday evening!” - Councillor Adam Vaughan, City of Toronto
