Family Fun at the Scadding Court: Live Local Friday Night Market!

TORONTO - Scadding Court Community Centre launches the one of a kind Live Local Friday Night Market on Friday June 17, 2011.

Located along the south side of Dundas Street just east of Bathurst, Scadding Court Community Centre's outdoor Live Local Marketplace offers goods from independent and local vendors, farmers, and entrepreneurs. Products include artisanal cheese, Montreal smoked meats, bubble tea, international arts & crafts, a wide selection of cell phone accessories & cards, toys, flowers and much more!

It's a great shopping destination with the added bonus of supporting a local economy and making this strip of Dundas Street a lively place. The Marketplace is kicking off June 17th and will be open every Friday night throughout the summer.

- What: Launch of the Live Local Friday Night Market
- When: Launch: Friday June 17th at 6pm until 10pm
- Who: Adam Vaughan, City Councillor, Ward 20
Rosario Marchese, MPP Trinity Spadina
Carole Beaulieu, Associate VP, University Relations, OCAD University
- Where: Scadding Court Community Centre, 707 Dundas St. W (southeast corner Dundas & Bathurst Streets)

Friday nights between June 17th and September 2nd, come join Scadding Court Community Centre and its marketplace vendors, along with great performers and local retailers to celebrate everything the local community and businesses have to offer. Come to enjoy food, shopping, entertainment, movies and friends! This Friday only: check out the OCAD U Faculty art display on your way to Gone Fishin' and catch your dinner in our indoor pool!

"This is a fantastic opportunity for the neighbourhood to really celebrate the community and support living locally... a great way to spend a family-friendly Friday evening!" - Councillor Adam Vaughan, City of Toronto

"As a company & community of artisans, Monforte is excited to see how the Night Market will help the Scadding Court Marketplace grow and promote a stronger sense of neighbourhood. This can be a real place of great advocacy, education and amazing food." – Ben, Monforte Dairy
