Eid Al-Adha Community Lunch
Sunday November 13th, 12 - 4pm

Eid Al-Adha is a Muslim ritual that commemorates the sacrifice Prophet Ibrahim made to fulfill Allah's request. During this time, Muslims donate meat as a gesture of contributing to the well-being of others. As a result, Scadding Court is hosting a community lunch that will donate meat to 500 families, and will also include speakers, performances, an educational display and screening, henna body art, a children's area and more.
