Live Local

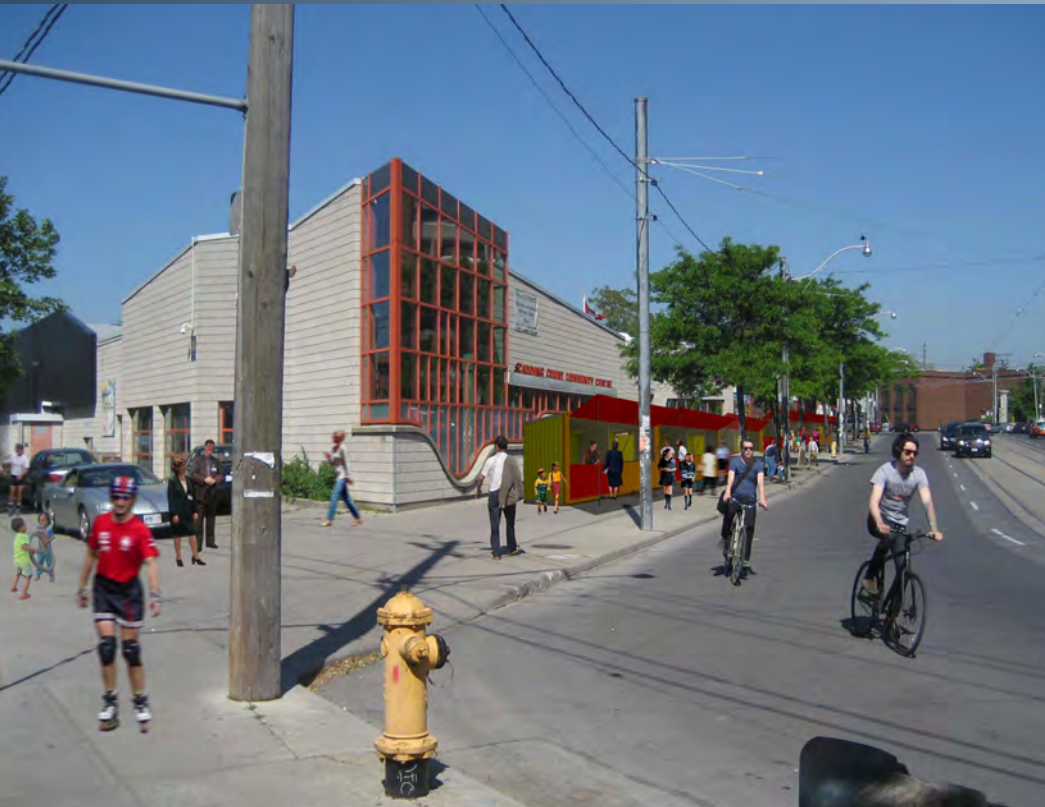

at the

Scadding Court Community Marketplace

This summer the Scadding Court Community Marketplace will redefine the heart of downtown Toronto! Colourful booths offering an array of unique products, services and activities will transform the Dundas-Bathurst area into an inspirational outdoor destination promoting social, cultural and economic harmony, family wellness and strong communities.

The Market will be open during the day throughout the week year round. We will launch Toronto's first Night Market on Friday and Saturday nights during the summer time, this summer! Join us for featured performances and theme events.

Join us in revitalizing the Dundas streetscape and neighbourhood!

Interested in renting a booth?

Are you:

- A local business looking for a new or additional place that is affordable, fun and vibrant?
- Someone looking for a place to sell unique product?
- A local community-based group or institution that wants to expand your outreach and services?
- A person who lives in the community or city who is looking for a place to start your business?

A variety of booths are available and can be custom designed at fantastic space use rates on a six month, one year or longer term basis.
